

YES, YOU HAVE SEEN THIS PICTURE on this page before, but no one has called the newspaper office to identify it. When identified the owner will get the original mounted photograph, the person who identifies it will get credit toward the $25.00 which will be given to the person who correctly identifies the highest number of pictures in the Mystery Farm Home series being run in The Columbian-Progress and Sunday Mirror newspapers, and a story will follow in this newspaper. If you can identify this picture, please call the newspaper office. This is Mystery Farm Number 75.